

Association's Profile

The Association of Thai ICT Industry (ATCI)

Year Established	1989
Membership	Seventy five corporate members engaging in hardware, software, ICT business and professional services.
Mission	ATCI represents Thailand's information and communication technology industry by promoting and facilitating the industry's excellence that adds value to the Thai economy and society.
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- To promote and assist in the development of ICT human resources for the growth of the information and communication technology in Thailand.- To exchange knowledge, experiences and information on ICT development, trade and investment among members and interested parties.- To act as an advisory, consulting and coordinating body for the information and communication technology community- To cooperate and work with professional associations whose objectives are in line with ATCI's.- To provide and disseminate information and views related to information and communication technology to the public and policy makers.
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Organizing workshops, seminars, conferences- Organizing annual ICI exhibition and Software Fair- Conducting computer market survey and industry outlook- Engaging in training and education activities- Participating in the Thai government's ICT committee to work on national IT policy and Thailand ICT plans and programs.- Providing views and recommendations on ICT related matters to the government